

April 9, 2018- Carlsbad Municipal Court announces two new promotions:

Kimberly Hernandez – Court Administrator

Kimberley Hernandez has been an employee for the courts for 23 years, and she served under three Municipal Court Judges; Judge Janell Whitlock, Judge David Redford and the late Judge Janet Ellis. She has been promoted to Court Administrator. She was court clerk for 19 years and Assistant Court Administrator for five years. She has attended 20 New Mexico Municipal Court Staff conferences, four Justice Systems Users conferences and has served on New Mexico Municipal Court staff committees. In July, Hernandez was named Court Clerk of the Year by the New Mexico Municipal Court Clerks Association. She is a graduate of Carlsbad High School and received an associate's degree from New Mexico State University- Carlsbad. She is the daughter of Gyndolin Miller and the late William B. Miller. She is married to Michael Hernandez and has two daughters, Kelsey and Ashley.

Ashley Carnero – Assistant Court Administrator

Ashley Carnero has been an employee for Carlsbad Municipal Court for 8 years. Carnero has now been promoted to Assistant Court Administrator. She is a graduate of Carlsbad High School and attended New Mexico State University- Carlsbad. She is married to Chris Carnero and they have two daughters.

