- Double Eagle Consumption
- Effluent Reuse Agreement Status
- Effluent Reuse Project

0:17:34 6. Financial Reports by Wendy Hammett

Wendy Hammett reviewed the revenues and expenditures. She explained that the City's budget is down from last year. There was discussion regarding possible reasons for the downturn including the later seasonal rains, reduced population and the decreased housing market. Steve McCutcheon said there have been cuts to the budget and the City Staff has been informed to reduce costs where possible.

Larry Henderson told Ms. Hammett that he appreciated the inclusion of the financial information in the packets. Mr. McCutcheon said the reports are up-to-date and work continues on the Audit. He said he feels that the Audit will be on time and in good shape. He thanked Ms. Hammett for all her work. Ms. Hammett said she appreciates the work Mr. Fierro is doing on the Audit.

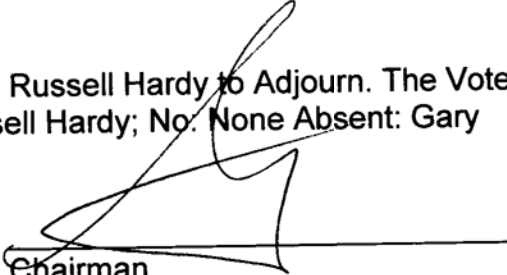

Richard Aguilar reminded those present that October 16, 2016 will be the Hazardous Household Waste Collection Event. Mike Hernandez said social media will be useful in getting the word out.

Larry Henderson asked about the status of the City's Recycling Program. Mr. McCutcheon explained that CARC-Rainbow Recycling had an equipment failure and the costs of repair prohibited them from continuing the program. He said the market for recycled products is not profitable anymore. He said the City was committed to recycling but with the loss of partners; it cannot continue.

Mike Hernandez reported that the pumps were down on two Lift Stations. He said he will be requesting a budget adjustment to increase funds to allow for the maintenance.
