ITEM 4 – REPORT FROM ERIC CHAVEZ AND KYLE BOATMAN:

See attachment 1 & 2

Jack asked about Sun Country coming out to rate the golf course. Eric told the board that they came to get all the yardages and that they would be back in January to finish rating the course. Jack also asked about the GPS for the carts. Eric informed them that they should be installed in the next couple of weeks. He said that these ones will be unlimited for the geo-fencing. Myrna asked about the drainage of #7. Kyle said that they have a plan but will most likely be done in February. Kyle informed them that there is two options for the drainage a French drain or an underground drain. Charles asked about the pond on #7. Ken said that administration would make a decision on it and that the board would be informed as soon as a decision is made. Ken also said the RFP has been advertised on the City website, newspaper as well as the PGA sites. Jack told the board that they will meet on January 23rd and January 28th to review and make a recommendation on the RFP. John asked what portion of the RFP they will be grading. Ken said they would have input on everything but the financial side of the RFP. Jack asked for next month's meeting to bring a couple names to put forth to replace Daniel Johnson on the board. Myrna asked if her husband Pat could serve on the board if she is on the board as well. Ken said he didn't think there was a rule against it. Dean asked about the gophers. Kyle said they have been treating them every week.
